 A short & easy-to-read book that clearly sets out the problems facing the auditing profession for auditors & non-financial specialists alike. The audit profession is at a tipping point. Without significant innovation in its business model, staff recruitment strategies & audit execution processes, the audit profession may not remain relevant in the 21st century. The number of claims against auditors has significantly increased over the past twenty years due to the spate of corporate & audit failures early in the 21st century (Enron, Worldcom, Parmalat, etc).

The theory of the firm did not exist, in any serious manner, until around 1970. Only then did the current theory of the firm literature begin to emerge, based largely upon the work of Ronald Coase & to a lesser degree Frank Knight. It was work by Armen Alchian, Robert Crawford, Harold Demsetz, Michael Jensen, Benjamin Klein, William Meckling & Oliver Williamson, among others, that drove the upswing in interest in the firm among mainstream economists.
